[The County officers designated in the order, as having been elected, will be given hereafter.]

The certificates of election will be sent direct to the State executive and judicial officers, and to the members elect of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States; but for convenience and safety of transmission, the certificates for the members elect of the General Assembly will be sent to the Commanding Officer Post of Raleigh, for delivery, upon application by the persons who are entitled to receive them.

For like reasons, the certificates for the county offices will be sent to the Commanding Officers of Posts for the counties within their jurisdiction, for delivery or transmittal to the persons who are entitled to receive them.

A certified abstract of the returns made by the election officers, will be prepared and deposited in the office of the Secretary of State for the State of North Carolina.

Under the provisions of the Constitution, the General Assembly of the State elected thereunder "shall meet on the fifteenth day after the approval thereof (the Constitution) by the Congress of the United States, if it fail not on Sunday; but if it should so fall, then on the next day thereafter." (Article II, Section 29.)

The officers of the Executive Department of the State, "first elected, shall assume their duties ten days after the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States." (Article III, Section 1.)

The term of office of all officers of the Judicial Department "shall begin upon the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States." (Article IV, Section 32.)

The county officers provided for and elected "shall enter upon their duties ten days after the approval of this Constitution by the Congress of the United States."—(Article VII, Section 10.)

But in order that there may be no confusion, delay, or failure in the administration of justice or other governmental functions and to ensure the safety of public property, the Solicitors of Judicial Circuits, clerks of courts, sheriffs, coroners and other executive officers charged with active administration duties, or with the care of public records, or the custody of public moneys or public property, will not be relieved from responsibility for the due discharge of the duties of their offices until their successors are duly qualified.

It is made the duty of Commanders of Posts, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, to see that the officers elect who are able to qualify under the Constitution and laws of the United States and the Constitution and laws of the State, and have so qualified, are duly installed in the offices to which they have been elected and as above prescribed.

Under the requirements of the ninth section of the law of July 23, 1867, amendatory of the law of March 2, 1867, "to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," the officers elect, both of the legislative and executive departments, will, before entering upon the discharge of the duties of their offices, take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by the law of July 2, 1862, "to prescribe an oath of office, and other purposes." This oath will be taken in duplicate; one to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State for the State of North Carolina, and the other to be forwarded to District Headquarters.

If any of the State officers elected under the new Constitution are disqualified by the third Section of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, known as Article XIV, or are unable to take the oath prescribed by the law of July 2, 1862, they will not be allowed to discharge any official functions until the disability has been removed by the Congress of the United States, or unless the oath of office required by the ninth Section of the above cited law shall have previously been dispensed with by law, or unless the said ninth Section shall have become inoperative by the fact that the people of the State have been declared by law to be entitled to representation in the Congress of the United States.

By Command of
Bvt. Maj. Gen. ED. R. S. CANBY,
LOUIS V. CAZIARC,
Aide de Camp,
Actg. Asst. Adjt. Genl.

NOTE.—The announcement of the results of elections in the Counties of Caswell and Haywood are made subject to final decision, upon the conclusion of the investigation of charges of election frauds in those Counties.

The Bankrupt Act.

We have been requested to publish the Bankrupt Law. This is impossible. It makes a pamphlet of volume. In order, however, that our readers may understand it, and may therefore not be induced to be imposed upon by parties, who are hostile to the interests of others, we have taken some pains to compile from several sources the following general principles of the Act, for the benefit of all who contemplate seeking its benefits. But first of all, we advise our friends not to determine hastily what they will do, until they have had the counsel of a respectable and intelligent Attorney, upon whom they can rely.

1. Any manifest design of the Bankrupt Law is to benefit honest, but unfortunate, debtors, whose just necessities are greater than they can pay.

2. To become a voluntary bankrupt under this Act, the debtor must owe at least $300, which, of course, he is not able to pay in full.

3. Petitioners under the Bankrupt Act are required to render a schedule of all their debts and liabilities, of every kind and description whatever, and also an inventory of all their estate, both real and personal, including all property and rights of which they are possessed, or in which they may have an interest, (though not in possession) in conformity with certain "Forms" prescribed in the "General Orders" of the Supreme Court of the United States. These schedules, verified by the oath of the petitioner before a District Court Judge, Register in Bankruptcy, or U S Commissioner, must accompany the petition, and, when filed, is the commencement of proceedings in Bankruptcy. If it should be found out, pending the proceedings at any time before the bankrupt is discharged, that he has, by any shift or subterfuge, made a false or partial schedule, this would be evidence of fraud and would defeat his discharge.

4. When the petition is by a firm or copartnership, a full set of schedules of the respective estates of the members of the firm should also be added.

5. When the petition is filed, the case is immediately referred to a Register, who examines the petition and schedules annexed thereto, and if they are correct in form, makes a certificate to that effect, to be filed with the Clerk, then adjudges the debtor a Bankrupt and issues a warrant to the messenger to summon all the creditors named in the petitioner's schedules to meet at the Register's office, at a certain time and place, to prove their claims and elect one or more Assignees to take charge of the Bankrupt's estate.

6. A creditor can, however, prove his claim at any time previous to the last dividend, which will generally be six months subsequent to the adjudication of Bankruptcy.

7. No creditor has any standing in a Bankrupt Court until he proves his claim.

8. Creditors have no right to compel the Bankrupt to answer questions concerning the disposal of property or him acquired subsequent to suing a petition in Bankruptcy. The date of the filing of the petition by or against a debtor, is the date at which, if adjudication of bankruptcy follows, the old order of things passes away and a new leaf is turned over." On this point decisions have been various. The safe rule appears to be, that the applicant in Bankruptcy has a perfect right to claim whatever he has made after his application, by his personal exertions, but any profits he may have made from investment or credit, may be liable to the claim of the receiver up to almost the period of his discharge.

9. The Bankrupt can apply to the Court at any time after the expiration of six months, and within one year from the adjudication, for the discharge in bankruptcy, and in case no assets come into the hands of the assignee, or no debts be proved against his estate, at any time after the expiration of sixty days.

10 As soon as an Assignee is elected or appointed, the Judge or Register will convey to him, by deed of assignment, all the bankrupt's property except what is exempted, viz: "Household and kitchen furniture and other necessaries not exceeding in value (4500) five hundred dollars; also his wearing apparel and that of his wife and children, and such other property not included in the foregoing as is exempt from levy and sale upon execution or other process by the laws of the State in which the bankrupt has lived for six months next preceding the time of such assignment, to an amount not exceeding that allowed by State exemption laws in force in 1864. A safe "Counsel" for suggests, under this head, that the common impression that persons may become bankrupts and yet be allowed to retain their houses and lands, or other property of considerable value, is a great mistake. Under the Act, no honest Bankrupt in this State can have allotted to him, free from the operation of the Act, exceeding $700, besides the wearing apparel of himself and family. Bankrupts in this State are not entitled to homesteads under this Act.

11. It is the duty of the assignee, within twenty days after the assignment to him is made, to allot to the bankrupt such articles as are exempted, and file an inventory of the same with the value of each article so allotted, and creditors may make objections to the report of the Assignee at any time within twenty days after it is filed.

12. As to costs in bankruptcy proceedings, section 60 of the Bankrupt Act provides that the petitioner, before a warrant issues, shall deposit fifty dollars with the Register, or with the Clerk, to be delivered to the Register as a security for his fees. General order XXIX provides that the fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk shall be prepaid or secured before they can be compelled to act. It is also provided by General order XXX that where the debtor has no means, and can prove the fact to the satisfaction of the Court, upon application, an order will be made requiring all the costs in the case to be paid out of the fifty dollars deposited with the Register. If, however, there are assets, but not enough to pay the Messenger after deducting the Bankrupt's exempted property, so that nothing comes into the hands of the Assignee, the fees will have to be paid by the Bankrupt; but if the Assignee receives assets, the fees of the Messenger will be paid by him before any dividend is made among creditors.

13 Some suppose that the Register is entitled to 500 fee. The fees of the Register, Messenger, Clerk, and costs of publication of notices in Bankruptcy, are fixed by law, and if they demand higher fees, they are liable, as in other cases of malfeasance in office. In ordinary cases of Bankruptcy, the fees may amount to $100. In some cases more, in some less—the costs depending on the amount of labor and litigation involved in each case.

14. Differences of opinion among Attorneys have existed in this State, as to the limit which the Act takes as to the time to make application in Bankruptcy. Some have supposed that no debtor will be permitted to apply for Bankruptcy after some early day in March, unless he is able to pay fifty per cent of his debts. We are assured that this is not the case. The law did not go into operation for the purposes for which it was enacted until June 1st, 1867. It gives twelve months from that time, to all honest debtors, whatever may be the extent of their indebtedness which they cannot pay in which to present their applications. After the 1st of June next, every debtor must be able to pay fifty per cent of his indebtedness in order to a successful application in bankruptcy, unless he first obtain the consent of a majority of his creditors.

THE BANKRUPT LAW.

We have been asked by several, within a few days, if the Congress had extended the benefits of the Bankrupt law. The impression has gone out that the bill, which was passed in the House, some weeks ago, had been passed by both Houses and had become a law. This, we believe, is a mistake. The Senate has not yet acted upon it, and, from present appearances, it is very doubtful whether anything pertaining to the material interests of the people will be attended to until after the Presidential election. It is, therefore, unsafe to defer, even for a day, the matter of going into Bankruptcy, after a man determines that he is obliged to seek whatever benefit the present law may promise.

Under the law as it now exists, no debtor can go into Bankruptcy, after the first day of June next, (now close at hand,) unless his assets will pay 50 per cent. of his debts, unless all his creditors consent to his being declared a Bankrupt.

We must repeat our former advice, that all debtors should be very careful to obtain the best legal advice, before going into Bankruptcy. We have reason to believe that many, who have applied, without taking this necessary precaution, will fail to obtain a discharge, for the reason that a large class of creditors will not readily give up their claims as lost, but will press matters to the utmost extremity. Shrewd lawyers will not fail to detect any flaws or irregularities which may have occurred in the several stages of Bankruptcy, to save their clients from damage, and hence no one need expect relief, if the law has not been strictly complied with in every particular.

THE RADICAL CONVENTION.

The National Radical Convention, which met at Chicago on the 20th, is largely attended. The first day was occupied with matters of organization.

Nineteen negroes, only, are said to be in attendance. Texas is the only Southern State unrepresented, and the question, whether the Southern delegates come from States, or conquered provinces, seems not to have been agitated.

Our impressions are that Gen. Grant will be nominated for the Presidency by acclamation, without a committal to extreme Radicalism or to universal negro suffrage, but, in order to re-assure the extremists that that is the real platform, nevertheless, Ben. Wade will be put upon the ticket for Vice-President, as a security or indemnity that universal negro suffrage is in the platform. Many of the side resolutions, not in the platform, will be of the most bitter character. We are not yet prepared to judge whether the Chaseites will form a party or not. Matters look tangled.

DEMOCRATIC CLUBS.—We observe that Democratic Clubs are being formed at different points in the State. In another column, will be found the proceedings of the Democratic Club at Wilson. The meeting in Haywood county, the proceedings of which we published some days ago, recommended the call of a Democratic State Convention, to be held at Raleigh, on the 13th. of June next, which has been seconded by the Wilson Club. Organization, and a compact array of forces in opposition to Radicalism, are what is aimed at. Whatever tends to the uprooting of the Radical party, whose principles and aims are, in our judgment, totally adverse to the peace and permanent prosperity of the South, will have our earnest support. Whether such an organization, under the style of the Democratic party, before the next Presidential election, is best calculated to promote that great design in North Carolina, we are not prepared to determine. We are still inclined to the opinion, which we have generally expressed, that such a movement is premature. Yet, general consultation and correspondence among all classes, who are opposed to Radicalism, would enable those who believe the movement judicious and wise, to determine the matter definitely.

HON. BEDFORD BROWN.—We are pleased to learn that the Hon. Bedford Brown, of Caswell, has been appointed to fill the vacancy, from this State, on the National Democratic Committee. It is a capital appointment. He has accepted the position, and, although his age inclines him strongly to ignore all participation in public affairs, yet his stern patriotism and ardent love for his native home, and long cherished principles, will not allow him to relax his efforts in endeavoring to promote the future well-being of his country. Mr. Brown will meet the Committee and participate in its councils, when notified of a meeting.

THE LEGISLATURE.—According to Gen. Canby's order, a portion of which we publish on our first page, this morning, (parts of the remainder to appear hereafter,) the Legislature of North Carolina is composed about as follows:

Senate.—Radicals 38; Conservatives 12.
House.—Radicals 80; Conservatives 40.

Of these Radicals, 3 in the Senate and 16 in the House are negroes.

We cannot see our way out of our present difficulties; but we believe we shall get out of them. Providence is playing the game, and we shall not despond because it is too fine a one for us to understand. Our business is to work, and keep a brave heart.—Charlottesville Democrat.

The Portland Gazette says that it would have no hope of justice if the Democracy were in power. Of course—no hope, but a great deal of fear.

OUR MINING INTERESTS.

The Counties of Cabarrus, Mecklenburg, Union, Stanly and Montgomery make up the best gold mining region of the United States, at least East of the Rocky Mountains. Almost the entire area of these counties abounds in gold, while, at the same time, the farming lands are of a character to afford ample provisions, if properly cultivated, for the entire mining region. Gold also is found in other counties contiguous, and in Burke and other counties West.—In these counties there are a number of mines which have been opened and operated for years, which have yielded a large income. Many of them are now being worked extensively and the yield is very profitable. New mines are being discovered constantly, and, from what we hear, the supply of gold is almost inexhaustible.

Our advertising columns give notice of the sale at auction of a very valuable mining interest lying in Montgomery County, to be sold on the 23d, of June next, at the Exchange Sales Rooms in Baltimore. We learn that parties from the North are making an examination of this property, with the view of purchasing.

Our old friend, D. A. G. Palmer, Esq., of Stanly County, called to see us on yesterday, who informed us that he was working profitably the Thomas mine in Union County, of which he is proprietor. He showed us some pretty specimens of gold recently taken from the mine.

Success we say to our mines, and to every other interest which will promote the prosperity of North Carolina!

SPECULATIONS.

It is often asked, what will become of impeachment? Will it be quashed or will it be fully determined? We answer, that, without a change in the complexion of the present Impeachment Court, the conviction of the President is impossible. We do not believe Congress will resort to the absurd and criminal expedient of admitting new Senators in order to convict. We judge, therefore, with the present temper of the Radicals, if their efforts to find sufficient pretence for the expulsion of one or more of the so-called recusant Radical Senators, who voted to acquit the President, shall fail, that the Court, on its next meeting, will adjourn to some distant day, and thus the impeachment charges will be kept in terrorem over President Johnson's head till his term expires, unless additional charges can be trumped up to convict the President before a new Court, with additional Radical Senators from the South.

Will the new Constitutions of the Southern States be approved and will the Southern States be admitted to representation?—Undoubtedly, unless a two thirds majority can be found to nullify the President's veto, and this we consider more doubtful than the President's impeachment. Grant's election to the Presidency will very materially depend upon the support of the Southern States. Should a Chase ticket be formed, which we do not consider by any means certain, Grant can only be elected by throwing the election into the House of Representatives.

FORNEY REFUSES TO GIVE IMPEACHMENT UP.

Unlike Greeley, his ally in hounding on impeachment, Forney refuses to give it up, and still keeps up a great clatter about the future course of the case. In his Philadelphia paper we find a special dispatch from Washington, from which we take the following choice sentences:

* * * * *

"The Treasury Department is in high glee over the result. Those in the ring there are loud in praise of the Chief Justice and Mr. Fessenden, to whom they deem their salvation due. Its rottenness will, however, be exposed.

The leniency hitherto felt by many toward McCulloch no longer exists. There will be war to the knife on the Chase-Fessenden treasury cabal. General Logan is very busy gathering testimony and others are following suit. General Butler is already in possession of information which illustrates the means to effect the result arrived at yesterday.

A motion will be offered in the House on Monday by Mr. Baldwin, chairman of the library committee, to require the removal of Miss Vinnie Ream and Clark Mills, Jr., from the rooms of the Capitol now occupied by them as studios, it being matter of common report that both artistic fledglings, especially the former, have been effectively lobbying against the President's conviction. Senator Ross occupies rooms at the residence of Miss Ream's parents.

Very little excitement this evening. The whiskey ring leaders seem quite alarmed at the pending investigation by the Managers. It has been noticeable amid the noisy congratulations of the Johnsonites that the leaders keep silent. There is not the slightest doubt entertained that the corruption will be exposed. General Butler has taken the affair in hand. Those who know how he works up a case will be encouraged by the fact. Some things have already been proven, but it is not deemed desirable to say anything further on the subject, as a warning would be given thereby to parties on whose track the Managers are following.

* * * * * *

Very little is said of Henderson's new Cabinet for Mr. Johnson, but hints are being dropped of a Conservative ticket, with Chase and Henderson on it. Mr. Stanton still remains at his post, and will stick until the end. The President's claqueurs declare that he will be put out to-morrow, but no attempt of the kind will be made while the impeachment hangs sword-like over Johnson's head.

* * * * * * *

Senator Fowler has left his lodgings in this city since yesterday, and taken up his in Georgetown, at the same hotel as Senator McCreery, of Kentucky. The landlord states that Henderson has also engaged rooms. Fowler occupied rooms in the same hotel as Col. Forney. "The wicked fleeth when no man pursueth," though it is not likely they will be long left in that enviable condition."

Ex-President Pierce has written a letter Mr. Hoover, of Washington, in which he advises calm counsels and wise action on the part of the National Conservative Convention to meet in New York on the 4th of July, to nominate candidates for President and Vice-President. He says for himself "he would readily yield any personal preference to ensure the overthrow of the more than incipient reign of terror now hurrying all that is valuable to swift destruction."

READING THEM OUT OF "THE PARTY."—Forney's Philadelphia Press repudiates and reads out of the party the seven Republican Senators who voted "not guilty" on the eleventh article of impeachment.—Here is the insolent language he uses:

JOHNSON'S NEW RECRUITS.

With shame and mortification we detail the names of those Senators whose sudden and unexpected defection surrendered the government for the coming year into the hands of a man whom the country has over again repudiated and condemned. Having left the army of the Union and gone over to Mr. Andrew Johnson's train band, we give them a place by themselves. Doubtless, after a week or two of thorough drilling, they will be able to manœuvre creditably, with the veteran Democrats, falling in on the left:

Fessenden,	Ross,
Fowler,	Trumbull,
Grimes,	Van Winkle,
Henderson.

WILSON DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

THURSDAY EVENING, May 14.

An adjourned meeting of the Wilson Democratic Club was held in the Court House, Marcellus Edwards, Esq., President, in the chair.

Maj. John W. Dunham, being present, stated to the Club, that owing to physical inability, he was unable to comply with the request to address them at the present time, but that he would do so whenever his health would permit.

On motion, a special committee of three, consisting of Jas. S. Woodard, C. Lee Parker and Jesse H. Adams, were appointed to invite suitable speakers to address the Club, from time to time.

On motion, a committee of five, consisting of R. W. King, C. S. McDaniel, John W. Dunham, Jas. E. Shepherd and P. E. Hines, were appointed to draft a Constitution and By-Laws for the government of the Club; to be submitted to the Club at its next meeting.

On motion, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Democratic Club of the County of Wilson, believing that the time has arrived when a reorganization of the Democratic party in the State will conduce to the best interests of the people thereof, hail with pleasure and heartily endorse the following resolution, adopted at a recent meeting of the Democrats of Haywood County:

Resolved, That all the elements of opposition to the Radical negro party, by whatsoever name known, must naturally and necessarily co operate and affiliate with the Democratic party North—that being the only national party which now pretends to respect the powers of the Constitution, or to maintain the integrity of the Government framed by our fathers. Therefore, we respectfully suggest, in order to perfect our organization for the approaching Presidential election, that a State Convention of the Democratic party, and of all other organizations hostile to the perpetuation of Radical negro supremacy in the land, be called, to meet in the City of Raleigh, on the 13th day of June proximo.

Resolved further, That we recommend, and respectfully urge upon our Democratic brethren of the State, to hold meetings in each county, at as early a date as may be convenient, and appoint delegates to represent them in the State Convention.

Resolved further, That we recommend that a Convention of the Democratic party of the County of Wilson be held on Wednesday of June Court, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the said Convention.

On motion, adjourned, to meet again on Saturday night, May 16th

MARCELLUS EDWARDS, Pres.
H. F. MURRAY, S. B. FARMER, C. S. MCDANIEL, } Secretaries.

From the National Intelligencer.

THE CONGRESSIONAL BAKER.

The guano impeachers, who were desecrating the Sabbath by being in conclave at the Capitol, have summoned and are summoning before them witnesses to impeach the character of Senators in the respect of their action upon impeachment. The spies and informers of the War Department and Freedman's Bureau are supposed to be the furnishers of the data upon which Mr. Baker Butler acts. Who they are is indicated by the late article of the Nation (Radical.) It said that:

"Exposure of what goes on in the Chief Justice's saloons (the reported conversation of Chief Justice Chase and his daughter, Mrs. Sprague,) suggests naturally the inquiry whether the judges of the Supreme Court have been watched in their own houses as closely as they ought to have been. We greatly fear that both the Judiciary Committee and the Reconstruction Committee have been remiss on this point. The people are dying to learn, for instance, what it was Judge Field said at Mr. Black's dinner party, and yet nothing, so far as we have heard, has been done to gratify them. Now, we suggest respectfully that more use ought to be made of them gentlemen's waiters, and especially male waiters. A patriotic attendant at table, properly instructed by General Butler, could certainly, if he kept his ears open, pick up a great deal of interesting matter, and, perhaps, furnish some startling facts about the political opinions of the monsters who now sit on the bench of the Supreme Court. What could be easier than for a waiter of the right sort to keep the guests waiting as long as might be necessary to jot down, in the pantry, the traitorous utterances of any 'obstacles' who might be round the table in the other room. There is an amount of negligence about this matter which makes us fear some of our leaders are not up to their work."

THE QUESTION IN A NUT-SHELL.—The New York Times says:

"When the heat of party passion has passed away, sober and reflecting men will wonder how they could have been betrayed into such a violation of common sense and common decency. The Senators, who will have to justify themselves to their own consciences and at the bar of public opinion will be those who voted for conviction on this preposterous charge—not those who voted against it. And every man who has any appreciation of what it is that constitutes the honor and security of the nation will rejoice that the country was saved the scandal and reproach of deposing a President under so shallow and barefaced a pretext as this. We have escaped this black and lasting stain on our national reputation; and it is one of the narrowest escapes any nation has ever made from one of the greatest dangers which any nation has ever encountered."

BOARD OF VISITORS TO WEST POINT.—The President has appointed General W. B. Franklin, of Connecticut; General John Williams, of Tennessee; Professor Wm. G. Peck, of New York; General Leslie Coombs, of Kentucky; Governor W. L. Sharkey, of Mississippi; Professor Henry Coppee, of Pennsylvania; and Hon. N. B. Judd, of Illinois, as the annual Board of Visitors at West Point Military Academy.

The La Crosse Democrat is a disgrace to any party, and would ruin any party if it were imitated.—Charlottesville Chronicle.

ITS IMPORTANCE AND ITS BENEFITS ARE INCALCULABLE.

A COMPANY PAYING LOSSES PROMPTLY FOR A LONG SERIES OF YEARS, AND IS A stranger to litigation, is entitled to the confidence and patronage of our people. And such is the LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1868

NEW ADVERTISEMENT.—The Annual Commencement of Thomasville Female College, (Rev. D. R. Bruton, President,) will take place on Wednesday and Thursday, the 3d. and 4th. of June. See announcement.

CITY IMPROVEMENTS.—We are glad to see that the unsightly wooden buildings which formed a part of the old Guion Hotel, now the property of Dr. F. J. Haywood and the Hon. D. G. Fowle, have been torn down, and that it is the purpose of the enterprising owners to replace them with the most substantial and handsome improvements. It is one of the most attractive and desirable of our city sites.

Mills H. Brown, Esq., is about to erect a brick store on the burnt square, fronting on Fayetteville Street.

The Messrs. Tucker & Co. have adorned the doors and windows of their magnificent Iron Front with tasteful and brilliant colored awnings, which present a striking appearance.

Perhaps the greatest completed improvement is the neat and handsome pavement in front of the National Bank and contiguous buildings.

FRIENDS OF TEMPERANCE.—We learn that the new Council of this Order, mentioned a few days since, will be organized to night, at 7 o'clock, in the Masonic Hall building.

SACRILEGE.—To take a newspaper or to advertise, on your honor, and obtain credit, and then, right off, serve a notice in bankruptcy on the poor printer. A fellow might just as well rob a grave yard. How shall it be cured? Newspapers and advertising are now all a cash business. When men are trusted, therefore, beyond what they have paid, it is trusting to men's honor. If they have none of that article left, please let us know it.

MEDICAL ASSOCIATION OF N. C.—This body met in Warrenton, N. C., on Wednesday, the 20th inst. We learn that Doctors Thomas, Satchwell and Wood, of New Hanover, O'Hagan, of Pitt, Jones, of Edgecombe, Summerill, of Rowan, Norcom, of Chowan, Howard, of Baltimore, McKee, E. Burke Haywood and F. J. Haywood, Jr., of this city, besides other members of the medical profession, are in attendance. The proceedings will be looked for with great interest.

FRANKLINTON ACADEMY.—The exercises of this excellent School will be concluded on the 2nd. of June, instead of the 29th. of May, as heretofore announced.

A THOUGHT FOR THE NORTH.—If the plan of admitting carpet-bag Senators from the South for the purpose of convicting the President under the remaining articles, or on some new indictment, be carried out, and if the people of the North submit to it, they may as well reserve any further expression of sympathy for us of the South as a conquered and enslaved people, for it will then be plain that they are as much and as truly conquered and enslaved as we—with the addition in our favor that we fought to avert our fate, while they tamely accepted theirs. Sympathy, under such circumstances, would be as misdirected as it would be unacceptable.—Rich. Whig.

"Well!

"Mr. Johnson remains in the White House. The 11th was deliberately, and we doubt not judiciously, selected as the article that would command the most votes. This failing, all fail. There may be those who deem it wise and well to admit Senators from the reconstructed States, and force a verdict of guilty by their votes; but we cannot concur. It might have been well to defer the impeachment until those States should be represented in the Senate; but, having initiated it, we think it would not do to admit new Senators to vote upon it after the testimony was taken and the argument closed."

FRAILTIES OF MR. STEVENS.—A eulogist of Thad Stevens, in the Chicago Journal, says:

"Thaddeus Stevens is not too great a kind among men to be clear of faults. Not he. A favorite recreation of his has been for twenty years, in Pennsylvania avenue, to spend an hour quite every evening over the exciting contest of the faro-table. Regular as clock-work would be bet about fifty dollars, and though he never seemed to bet from any desire to gamble in the spirit of that nefarious practice, his faro bank account would foot up annually, on an average, about as much lost as won."

Bishop Beckwith has decided to take up his residence in Macon, Ga., and the citizens have already subscribed over $7,000 for the purpose of buying and furnishing a house for him. They intend to raise $10,000.

Prentice says that instead of a "High Court," the Senate has shown itself as low a court as ever sat in Christendom.

STATE NEWS.

The Wilmington Star learns, "from a reliable source," that Parson Singlair, of Robeson County, has packed up, bag and baggage, and gone over, "horse, foot and dragoons," to the Conservatives. Says the Star:

"He openly declares that the negroes will never be allowed to vote again, and that he intends to use his influence to that end. He has even made a public speech, at Lumberton, in which all the fire of his intellect (for, with all his faults, he is a man of no mean talent) was poured down on the heads of the Radicals, and scallawags. We also hear that he intends making an exposure of some of the most infamous corruption that ever disgraced even the Radical party.

Now, if the Parson only will it, he is certainly the man to tell some bad things "out of school," and we doubt not many of the carpet baggers of his section are now trembling in their boots.

The war having now fairly commenced, we may look for startling revelations.

Parson Sinclair again the carpet-baggers! Well! Well!!"

We learn, from the Wilson Plaindealer, that a plot to assassinate several of the first citizens of Washington, N. C., originating with one Hiram Stilley, a white leader and associate of negroes, was frustrated by an honest negro, on Thursday night of last week.

On Sunday, at Tarboro,' a fisticuff came off between a white radical and his ebony brother, the latter getting the best of it.

When the intelligence of the President's acquittal, on the Eleventh Article, was received at Weldon, a piece of cannon, a relic of other days, was brought out and some half-dozen rounds fired. Gen. Ransom was called out and made a few capital remarks, appropriate to the occasion.

A lynx, four feet and eleven inches in length, was killed, one day last week, near Yanceyville, by a son of Mr. Griffith.

A gentleman in Alamance thought he would put his meat where it would be entirely safe; so he stored it away up in his garret. But one of the "nation's wards" went over his head, while he was asleep, and stole it from there.

The Roanoke River at Weldon has been so full, during the spring, that the quantity of rock and shad caught has been much smaller than usual.

The Odd Fellows of Charlotte celebrated the 20th. of May, the anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, enthusiastically. They had a procession, two orations and a fine dinner.

The Wilmington Journal says that market gardening has been prosecuted with unusual success near that city. The Wilmington market shows much improvement in this respect.

Col. E. C. Yellowley and R. W. Singeltary, Esq., announce that they have opened a law office at Wilson.

Mr. S. B. Farmer, of Wilson, has made a successful experiment of market gardening, this spring. He put in 1½ acres in garden peas. He estimates the clear profit from the crop, after deducting expenses of labor, manuring, seed, freights, &c., at $150. The same ground will be put into sweet potatoes, which will pay well.

St. Maar, the Illusionist, performed at Weldon on Monday night. He had a large house and the proceeds he gave to refit the M. E. Church at that place. He performs at Halifax and Warrenton this week.

THE ALASKA PURCHASE—MINORITY REPORT.

WASHINGTON, May 18.

The bill reported from the committee on foreign affairs by Gen. Banks, to-day, makes an appropriation of seven millions two hundred thousand dollars in coin to fulfil the treaty stipulation for the purchase of Alaska. Messrs. C. C. Washburne, of Wisconsin, and Morgan, of Ohio, members of the committee on foreign affairs, unite in a minority report, concluding as follows: We have considered the various questions involved in the evidence in regard to the country under consideration, and are forced to the conclusion that the possession of it is of no value to the government of the United States; that it will be a source of weakness instead of power, and a constant annual expense, for which there will be no adequate return; that it has no capacity as an agricultural country; that so far as known it has no value as a mineral country; that its timber is mostly confined to the narrow strip of country, only 30 miles wide, South of Mount St. Elias, and is generally of poor quality, growing on inaccessible mountains; that its fur trade is of insignificant value to us as a nation, and will speedily come to an end; that the fisheries are of doubtful value, and that whatever the value of its fisheries, its fur trade, its timber and its minerals, they were all open to the citizens of the United States under existing treaties; that the right to govern a nation or nations of savages in a climate unfit for the habitation of civilized men was not worthy of purchase; that the constitutional right of the House to refuse to appropriate the money was known to Russia at the time the treaty was negotiated, and there can be no charge of bad faith it that right is asserted. They reported the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is inexpedient to appropriate money for the purchase of Russian-America.

CONFERENCE OF SOUTHERN TRAITORS AT CHICAGO.—Chicago, May 19.—10: 30 P. M. The conference of the delegations from the Southern States to night was organized by selecting J. W. Holden, of North Carolina, as chairman. A lengthy debate occurred regarding the status of the Southern States; during which the impending danger from the acquittal of Johnson was alluded to frequently, and all of the speakers declared that they could not return to their homes with safety if he is not convicted. The meeting agreed not to press their claims for admission to the Convention, but will rely on the action of the Northern delegates.—That this action may be entirely free from extraneous influence, they also agreed not to declare themselves in favor of any candidate for Vice-President. A proposition to hold an immense mass meeting in Chicago during the Convention, at which Southern speakers will alone participate, and will portray the political condition of the South, was adopted; after which the meeting adjourned.—Forney.

THE UNION LEAGUERS' CASE—AN APPEAL TO HOLDEN, THE GREAT MOGUL—THE CASE TO BE CARRIED BEFORE GEN. CANBY—THE FARMERS, &c.

NASH CO., N. C., May 18th. 1868.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I wrote you last week giving an account of the trial of some members of the Union League, (negroes,) on a charge of riot and unlawful conduct towards Wiley Taylor for voting the Conservative ticket, their conviction and punishment. They are now in Nash county jail paying the penalty of their lawless and outrageous conduct. Their fate will no doubt be a warning and a great advantage to their brethren, who might have been made dupes of in the same way.

I have just been informed that the offenders have made an appeal to their President (?) Staton, whose orders they obeyed, and that he has been to Raleigh to appeal to Governor Holden, the high chief of the League in this State, and the result of these efforts has been an appeal, no doubt, a rich and one sided affair, to Gen. Canby to interpose the military power and release them.

We have no idea Gen. Canby will act without a fair investigation, and if he is the man we take him to be, when the facts are all brought to his knowledge, he will not only uphold the civil authorities, but will take them through on "another line" on the charge of intimidating voters, for which they are also amenable. Such a course on his part will undoubtedly do good in disabusing the minds of the deluded negroes, who feel bound to obey the orders of their leaders, whether it be to arrest, try, punish and hang their own members, rob, burn houses or anything else.

This is the first instance we have noticed where the mockery of these secret league oaths and trials, which are very frequent, have been brought in direct conflict with the real laws of the country in court, and it is all important, that the people, especially the ignorant negroes, should know which they are to obey—the oaths and orders of the Union League or the regular laws of the State.

In this county a good many of the farmers find it impossible to carry on their crops, which are promising at this time, because of the short crop last year. The county court, in order to meet this difficulty, have appropriated ten thousand dollars to purchase corn for their relief. This is a wise step and worthy of imitation by other counties similarly situated.

Yours, &c., OBSERVER.

We will do Mr. Stanton the justice to say that his letter of resignation is believed to be in the hands of one of his friends, who is instructed to present it as soon as there shall be final action of acquittal of the President under the impeachment charges.—National Intelligencer, 20th.

An orator, who had raised his audience to a great height by his lofty soarings, exclaimed, "I will now close in the beautiful and expressive language of the poet—I forget his name—and—and—I forget what he said, too."

In one of the lower counties of the State of Georgia, where the Radicals elected their ticket by a large majority, the whole amount of taxes paid by them was just one dollar and eighty-four cents.

The Southern States are represented among the Vice Presidents and Secretaries, in the permanent organization.

Nothing definite regarding the nomination for Vice President. Hamlin seems to gain ground. No leader ventures a positive prediction as to the result. The Southern delegates are disposed to support Wilson.

Davis introduced a preamble and resolution appointing a committee of three to investigate the attempts and influence to intimidate.

Senator Henderson made a personal explanation, stating that he had been requested to appear before the Managers, and desired the sense of the Senate on his duty.

A long desultory discussion ensued.

The Radicals maintaining the object of the managers was to elicit facts to support additional articles, the gravamen whereof was the President's attempts to corrupt the Senators; to this end Henderson was to testify.

The Democrats maintaining that the proceedings were against the Senators.

In this sense Henderson rightly refused. Without action,

Adjourned to Monday.

THE CHICAGO CONVENTION—GRANT FOR PRESIDENT AND COLFAX VICE PRESIDENT.

CHICAGO, May 21, P. M.

The Committee on resolutions reported. Congratulates the country on assured success of the Congressional plan of reconstruction.

Congress must guarantee and maintain suffrage to the Southern loyalists. Denounces repudiation as a national crime. National obligations must be paid in letter and spirit. Demands equalization and reduction of taxes. Favors extending redemption debt, to the latest day reducing the interest, whenever honorably possible. The Government should be administered with the strictest economy. Corruption and extravagance, fostered by Johnson, should be reformed.

Lincoln's death was deplored. Deploring Johnson's accession, denounces him as usurper and violator of the laws and obstructor of reconstruction—and justly impeached of high crimes and misdemeanors.

No citizen, native or naturalized, must be imprisoned, when abroad, except for violations of the law.

Eulogizes the sailors and soldiers, their bounties are obligations never to be forgotten, their orphans and widows are nations wards.

Immigration should be fostered by a liberal and just policy.

The Convention sympathizes with all oppressed people who are struggling for their rights. Adopted, two or three dissenting.

Grant was unanimously nominated.

Gov. Brown, in announcing Georgia's vote, said the maxim of the Georgia Republicans is "enemies is war, in peace friends."

The Convention, adjourned subject to the call of the President.

FROM RICHMOND—RIOT IN THE CITY JAIL.

RICHMOND, May 21, P. M.

The Republicans, in Danville district, to-day, nominated L. C. Thayer, a member of the late Convention, for Congress.

Riot to-day in the city jail. It was so serious that the military was sent for and the leaders arrested.

The prisoners asserted that the prison fare did not suit them.

THE WEEKLY SUN.

THE CIRCULATION OF THE "WEEKLY SUN" always very large, has of late so increased that it may be called universal. It is shedding its light for all, in all sections—North, East, South and West. Its intercourse with the South, which was necessarily interrupted during the war, has been again resumed, and the evidences of public appreciation from that quarter are multiplying every day. When honest efforts are put forth, as to the "Weekly Sun," to meet the demand for a reliable weekly record of events and an entertaining vehicle of light literature, which, while it motives and phrases, aims to promote virtue as well as intelligence and to exclude every line of an impure and immoral tendency, it is cheering to receive such evidences of public appreciation as

[From the Land We Love.]

LITTLE GIFFEN.

Out of the focal and foremost fire—
Out of the hospital walls, as dire;
Smitten of grape-shot and gangrene,
(Eighteenth battle, and he sixteen!)
Spectre, such as you seldom see—
Little Giffen of Tennessee!

"Take him!—and welcome!" the surgeon said,
"Much your Doctor can help the dead!"
And so we took him, and brought him where
The balm was sweet on the summer air;
And we laid him down on a wholesome bed,
Utter Lazarus, heel to head!

Weary war with the bated breath,
Skeleton boy against skeleton Death!
Months of torture, how many such!
Weary weeks of the stick and crutch!
Still a glint in the steel-blue eye
Spoke of a spirit that wouldn't die!

And didn't I, say, more! in death's despite,
The crippled skeleton learned to write!
"Dear Mother" at first, of course, and then
"Dear Captain"—inquiring about the "men."
(Captain's answer—"Of eighty and five,
Giffen and I are left alive!")

Johnston's pressed at the front, they say;
Little Giffen was up and away!
A tear, his first, as he bade good-bye,
Dimmed the glint of his steel-blue eye;
"I'll write if spared;" there were news of fight,
But none of Giffen! he did not write!

I sometimes fancy that when I'm king,
And my gallant courtiers form a ring,
And each so thoughtless of power and pelf,
And each so loyal to all but self,
I'd give the best on his bended knee—
Yes, barter the whole—for the loyalty
Of little Giffen of Tennessee!

INTERESTING GOSSIP FROM ABYSSINIA.

A correspondent of the Chicago Tribune who accompanied General Napier's expedition writes from near Magdala, March 28th:

A STRANGE PEOPLE.

The Abyssinians are a most curious people. To attempt to give any idea of their manners and custom would occupy a much larger space than a letter of this kind would allow. Amhara, a province which lies to our right, is to the other provinces of the empire what Paris is to France. Its people give manners, customs, and religious example to the rest of the Abyssinians.—They are the most civilized and refined of all the nations in the whole of Africa south of Egypt. Gondar, the capital of "Itiopia," as the natives term their country, is situated in Amhara. Here are the only manufactories, schools, and academies in Abyssinia.

The people of Gondar work skillful designs in gold and silver, make excellent swords and muskets, and gunpowder is also manufactured there, while, from the fertility of its agricultural districts, Amhara has been called the granary of Abyssinia.

The province of Wadela, through which we are now travelling, has long been one of Theodore's favorite recruiting departments. The inhabitants, who are of a very warlike disposition, are perpetually at war, either with each other or with their neighbors. The people are known by the name of Wolis-Gallas, and have always possessed more or less republican ideas, and, of course, ever since Theodore commenced his tyranhical career have been his most active enemies. In appearance, the province resembles the rocky plain around Fort Lararmie, in Dakota Territory.

CURIOUS FASHIONS.

A distinctive feature of a chief in this country is the quantity of ghee or clarified butter with which he anoints his hair, plaited, twisted curled, and braided as it is. A peasant contents himself with simply putting a patch of this yellow grease on the top of the head, but a chief, or a sheik, literally plasters his cranium with it, so that the color of his hair is hardly distinguishable, and his head is more like a sailor's slush-rag than anything I can liken it to. When the sun shines this grease melts, and his face then resembles a half-roasted and well larded goose.

The women have their fashions as well as the aristocratic Mrs. Grundy who lives on Fifth avenue, the recognized leader of the creme de la creme of society. Near the seacoast the women allow their hair to grow as long as it can, never disturbing themselves about its appearance, cleanliness, or growth. On the table-land, at Senate, they tie it up in a knot on the top of the head. About Ategerath and thence to Autalow, in Tigre, the women have shaven crowns, while a multitude of tiny braids dangle about the sides of the head. In Woggerat, they plait their hair in seven long rows, extending from the forehead to the nape of the neck, and in Wadela, the hair is curled in front and then folded and twirled up into a gigantic chignon at the back of the head, which is well greased and kept in order.—The Abyssinian females pay more attention to their hair than they do their sucklings, who are swung carelessly to their backs like Indian papposes.

They are utterly regardless of their bodies, which, I believe, they never wash, if I may judge by the dirt with which they are incrusted. The clothing of the chief's daughters is very scant, indeed, and consists of a goat skin wrapped around their loins, leaving the upper and lower extremities exposed to the vulgar gaze, while the lower classes, with the exception of a few, go about in a perfect state of nudity. These come to our camps with loads of grain, ghee, butter, honey, clabber, wax, and bread, and afford infinite delight to the English soldiers, who, I verily believe, have less self-respect than any soldiers in the world.—The females perform the manual labor, till the fields, harvest, and attend to other laborious out-door labor, while the men wander about listlessly, or do the marketing, always carrying their spears and shovels wherever they go.

THE BIBLE IN ABYSSINIA.

The people of Abyssinia are great Scripture readers. Each family possesses over ten copies of the Bible printed or written in the Arabic language. For the purpose of testing their knowledge of Holy Writ your correspondent, urged by the interpreter, Captain Speedy, the Basha Felecca of Theodore's army, propounded a few questions, such as "Who was the first hunter?" "What was David's father?" "What was the name of the man in whose fields Ruth gleaned?" "How many days was Noah in the ark?" All of which questions were answered correctly by a young fellow not over twenty years of, who, we found out afterward, was also an excellent writer.

Every one carries an iron cross attached to a string, which hangs around his or her neck—an ostentatious proof that he or she is a Christain. Finding it somewhat difficult to purchase food from them without having a string around my neck to show that I was a Christian, I have hung a blue ribbon two inches wide in its place, which stamps me as a most excellent Christain; and since I have adopted this plan I have experienced no difficulty whatever in purchasing edibles for the mess.

ANOTHER STRANGE IDEA

has taken possession of the people. Whenever they see an officer who sports an eyeglass, they regard him as a person who has attained high military distinction. Whenever visiting any villages in the vicinity of the camp, the correspondents hang a pair of spectacles on their breasts, and thereby recieve profound reverence for their valor and military talents.

GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue stamps may be used indiscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in Schedule B., except proprietary and playing card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancel the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do so, the party for whom it is made, may stamp it before it is used; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument, to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, &c., in which case these, as the original process, severally require stamps.

Writs of scire facias are subject to stamp duty as original process.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and is subject to a stamp duty of five cents, except when taken in suits of legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand or at any time designated, are subject to stamp duty as Promissory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of five cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable, under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyance of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate or interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on warrant of attorney accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on each paper, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgment of the instrument which is not stamped.
